Dear CCS Families,

As a school community, we have seen God work in amazing ways and I have seen that God's plans are so much better than ours. I want to share some unexpected life news with you, knowing that the consistent truth in all of our lives is that God is faithful as He directs each of our journeys.

At the end of this school year, I will be moving with my husband to Raleigh, North Carolina. His business there has been growing, our three adult children will be living in Raleigh, Indianapolis, and New York City, and my aging parents live in Florida. This move east is one we feel God calling us to make.

This is a very recent decision and one not taken lightly as my heart is fully invested in the ministry of Calvary Christian School and developing kingdom students and families. While unexpected and not what I planned, I find refuge and strength knowing that none of this is a surprise to God. I am working to fully trust Him and His faithfulness.

I am committed to transitioning well and partnering with the Head of School Search Committee as we enter into the search for a new Head of School. I know God will bring an excellent leader to pursue the vision and mission of our school and maintain a strong partnership with the church.

Please commit to praying for me and my family, for our school, staff, and families at CCS. It has been an incredible privilege to be a part of your lives.

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight." Proverbs 3:5-6

Seeking Him in all things,

Mrs. Hess
Head of School
